

Andrew, 10, licks the competition in Bizzie Lizzie's contest!

South Craven's Andrew Griffiths has licked the opposition in an ice cream dessert recipe competition run by the Bizzie Lizzie's Group of fish and chip shops in Skipton.

The ten-year-old, of The Vicarage, Silsden, tasted success in the contest with his dessert - Caramel and Apple Surprise – created with the help of his cousin, six-year-old Oliver Hannam, from Bingley, who attends Eldwick Primary School.

The duo then visited Bizzie Lizzie's shop in Swadford Street to help make the dessert, before tucking into it with the help of Andrew's brother, sister and cousins.

A pupil at Hothfield Junior School and avid Bradford City supporter, Andrew also won an Ipod Touch for his creative genius.

The competition-winning dessert is available at Bizzie Lizzie's throughout January and all profits from sales will be donated to Candlelighters, the Yorkshire childhood cancer charity that supports children, teenagers and their families.

Andrew Griffiths, centre, his cousin Oliver Hannam and Bizzie Lizzie's Group general manager Rebecca Lacy tuck into the competition-winning ice cream dessert.