Bizzie Lizzie's chips in to kit out kids

On the ball. The Christ Church School soccer team shows off its new Bizzie Lizzie's-sponsored shirts. Flanking the team are the company's Rebecca Lacy, left, and team manager Tracy Teal.

The soccer team at Christ Church School, Skipton, is really on the ball after being kitted out with new shirts by the town's Bizzie Lizzie's fish and chips shop.

Year 4, 5 and 6 youngsters make up the side, which plays against other local schools.

"It's the first proper kit they've had," said teacher Tracy Teal, team manager and coach.

Rebecca Lacy, general manager for the Bizzie Lizzie's group, commented: "Developing local business-education partnerships is important to us and we are also committed to putting something back into the local communities that support us."
