Budding ballroom dancer, nine-year-old Jennifer Lee, of New Lane Head Farm, Lothersdale, skipped steps of joy after learning she had won the fifth in a series of competitions staged by the Bizzie Lizzie's Group of fish and chip shops in Skipton.

Jennifer, a pupil at Lothersdale Primary School, landed the latest PSP – PlayStation Portable – worth £165, plus free games, in the contest for members of the group's Bizzie B Children's Club.

Jennifer attends ballroom dancing classes in Gargrave and has already tasted success in an inter-schools dancing competition in Keighley. She says she has been inspired by television's "Strictly Come Dancing" and is hoping to go on to further successes on the dance floor.

Jennifer is also a keen swimmer and was a member of her school's relay team which won an inter-schools competition at Skipton Baths.

Accompanied by mum Kathryn and six-year-old brother Robert, also a Lothersdale Primary School pupil, Jennifer received her prize from Rebecca Lacy, general manager of the Bizzie Lizzie's Group, which has three fish and chips shops in Skipton.

Rebecca said the contests had proved extremely popular and that the group was now looking to introduce new ideas to entertain and reward its younger customers.
